

Spring into History Teaching 2010!

A Professional Development Event for Current and Future History Teachers

Cedar Rapids, IA ✧ April 17-18

The Grant Wood History Institute invites you to a very special event. Spring into Teaching brings together future and current history teachers for an energizing weekend of history exploration, discussion, and instruction design.

Faculty Presenters:

Rodney (Kyle) Longley, Snell Family Dean's Distinguished Professor of History at Arizona State University

Dr. Longley teaches a variety of courses on modern America, and has received numerous teaching awards. His publications include The Sparrow and the Hawk: Costa Rica and the United States during the Rise of José Figueres (1997), In the Eagle's Shadow: The United States and Latin America (2002), Senator Albert Gore Sr.: Tennessee Maverick (2004), and Grunts: The American Combat Soldier in Vietnam (2008).

Catherine Denial, Assistant Professor of History, Knox College in Galesburg, IL, and Bringing History Home Project Historian

Dr. Denial's research focuses on gender, sexuality, race and nation-building in the United States, especially before 1865. She explores ways in which contact between different cultures took place in disparate times and places. Since 2001, as Bringing History Home project historian Dr. Denial has helped K-12 teachers in Iowa and Illinois design instruction centered on primary sources.
